Ms. Rebecca Malings,

It is our sad duty to inform you that we plan to subpoena you to appear at a UN Council Special Summit on Verbal Abuses in the next few months.

It appears that you were a singer in a band called "Stealth Munchkin". This horrendous verbal attack on the vertically challenged, implying that they are stealthy and sneaky, caught the attention of our president Markoff Chaney, himself vertically challenged. Needless to say, he was very upset at the use of the derogatory term "Munchkin" as well.

We plan on using your former band as an example of what can happen to thoughtless, selfish people when they use derogatory terms in this, the New World Order. You and your ex-band mates will all be requested to appear in New York City on or around the 19th of November for this Special Summit. Your local authorities will soon be in touch to give you more information and inform you of the consequences of not appearing as requested.

We understand that you are no longer with the band, but that the reason you left had nothing to do with the name of the band. Since you profited from this mocking of the vertically challenged and did not try to stop this heinous assault on said minority group, you will be included along with the current bandmembers in these hearings.

If you have any questions about this, please write to the address at the top of this letter, but be sure to label it "Attention: Joe Malik: PERSONAL". Please do not communicate directly with Mr. Chaney, as this may be seen as an attempt on your part to intimidate or bully Mr. Chaney, particularly given your obvious lack of sensitivity to the discrimination and abuses he and other vertically-challenged citizens face daily.

Thank you, and hope to see you in New York this winter,

Joseph Malik VP, OSWL
